81st. (To Josephine.) I am just starting I had expected a letter from you; it ma) anxious. You were not very well when I le: of you don't keep me in such anxiety. Th no letter; I have written several. Your ab rible, the nights are long, boresome, dull, monotonous

To-day, alone with my thoughts, my we ness, with men and their vain projects, I hav line from you to press to- my heart.

The headquarters have moved;
I start in September 8<lf Ala:

(To Josephine.) We art on the march* ad We have swept back the enemy's outposts are gay and in high spirits.

No letters from you, ™ I am really worri I am told you are well, that you have <v excursion on the lake of Como. Every day impatiently a letter with new» from you; y< precious it will be. Away from you I doi happiness of life in at the side of my gent! Think of me! Write often, very often; it's ' for abttenee.

8th, Trent:

0000 or 7000 pruioner*, 85 gun*,
7 flap, •